Dr. Kellinger has, beyond all eavil, settled Dr. Keilinger has, beyond all cavil, settled the doubtful question of restoring the hair, when gone over twenty years. Dr. K. will forfeit 21,000, if he does not prove a case, where the gentleman who had no hair from 17 to 42 years of age, had his likeness taken, and was entirely baid, and now has, from the use of Dr. K.'s Magic Fluid, a fine, soft, heautiful head of hair. Hundreds of other cases can be adduced by calling on Dr. K., at his great central depot, 476 Broad way. Two or three applications fasters and starts the hair a growing. This has never head done hy any other person. Her severisements in another column.

Very little business was transacted in Wall street today. There was no session of the board of brokers and we therefore have no official sales to report. The market closed a little more bouyant yesterday, and with a better feeling.

The receipts at the office of the Assistant Treasurer, of this port, to day, amounted to $124,795 13 - payments, $76,942 44. Balance, $3,106,483 84.

The amount of coal transported on the Reading railroad during the week ending the 20th inst. was 21.166 tons—total for the season, 305,689 tons. Same time last year, 156,828 tens. Increase this year, 145,861 tons.

The Virginia House of Delegates have passed, by a vote of 74 to 16, the Northwestern Railroad bill-incorporating a company for the continuation of a railroad from the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Clarksburg, Virginia, to Parkersburg, near Marietta. The Cincinnati Gazette says that, if these two charters have been passed—then Cincinnati has, at last, gained what she has contended for—the chartered right to the real and absolute Straight Line Railroad, from the tide water to St. Louis. The Virginia charter to Parkersburg, (if granted) will add from twenty-five to fifty per cent to the value of the Belpre Charter.

From the Three Forks of Tygart's River to Cinoin' route; and nothing, therefore, can prevent the straight line route from becoming the great thoroughfare of passengers across the continent. We may add that, for the same reasons, the Northwestern Railroad will add largely to the value of stock in the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, all these lines being links of one great

The subscription of the city of Wheeling to the Baltimore and Onio Railroad is but $500,000, and the bonds are not deliverable until the read is completed to Wheeling. The other subscription is one of $250, 000 to the Western Railroad. The actual debt of the city is but $200,000, while the available resources can be converted into cash, at $480,000, leaving her legitimate taxable property good for $12,000 over and above the current expenses. The annual revenues of the city are now $40,000, out of which she appropriates $10,000 for city expenses, $12,000 for interest, and there remains $18,000 for the interest on the $250,000 subscription to the Western Railroad-which will only be $15,000, leaving $3,000 in the treasury each year on her present revenues.

THE NEW VILLAGE OF ATRATTON PORT. ON Illusing Bay, between Gollege Point and Flushing — We congratulate those who wish to combine the enjoyment of pure air and sis scenery with thir business pursuits, on the establishment of a new village on Flushing Bay, distant only eight wiles from the city, and accessible by steamboat many times a day, and by a plank road from Williamsburgh at all times. The name of this delightful auburb is College Point; and it is laid out on the shore of Flushing Bay, which it overlooks for miles. The location is proverbishly healthy and possesses the great advantage of lying on the edge of deep water: so deep that; passengers can lain from steamboats at the decks at the lowestebb tice. Collago Point is only some 500 yards from Flushing, with which it is connected by a plank road. The site is owned by Messers Longky & Flammer, and consisted, a short time ago, of Sidlots, 50 by 100 lost. 200 lots were, bowever, sold in double
